MRS. HUNTER CHILDRESS

Mrs. Ella Jennings Childress, 86, widow of Hunter Childress, died at her home in Lynchburg.

Born in Appomattox County July 21, 1865, she was the daughter of Samuel Watkins and Emma Cawthorn Jennings. On May 27, 1885, she was married to Hunter Childress at a ceremony in Washington. Surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Wayland W. Sweeney; two grandsons, W. Whitney Sweeney and Janet L. Kidmore, and two great grandchildren, all of Lynchburg, and one brother, J. Tipton Jennings, of Appomattox.

Funeral services were held at 4 P. M. Tuesday in Dwight Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Spring Hill Cemetery.

W. S. REYNOLDS

William S. Reynolds, 63, died on Friday of a heart attack, in Newport News.

He was born in Appomattox County, son of the late Thomas E. and Emma Katherine Jones Reynolds.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 11 A. M., at the Central Baptist Church Cemetery. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. G. B. Buchanan, of Appomattox and Mrs. W. F. Barbee, of Winston-Salem, N. C. and one brother, Homer Reynolds, of Ashburn Park, N. J.

Pallbearers were six members of American Legion Post 104.

MRS. BUCKMAN

Mrs. Lillie Frances Buckman died April 6 at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Beulah A. Cumby, Pamplin. She has been ill for eight years.

She was born in Appomattox County March 2, 1886, a daughter of the late Charles Letcher and Jennie Whorley Ferguson. She was the widow of Marshall Buckman.

In addition to Mrs. Cumby she is survived by three other daughters, a son, a brother and four sisters, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 3 P. M. from Piney Ridge Methodist Church, of which she was a member, by the pastor, the Rev. T. L. Simpson. Interment was in the church cemetery. Active pallbearers were: Lloyd Richardson, Herman Richardson, Otis Richardson, Raymond Dean, Clyde Burrell and Edward Burrell.

MRS. WATERS

Mrs. Elizabeth Waters died here Saturday night at the home of her son, Ralph Waters, after an illness of two weeks. She was the widow of George Waters and had been a resident of the county for the past 15 years. She was born October 9, 1866, in Crawford, Ohio.

In addition to her son here, she is survived by another son, Wilbert Waters, of Bradford, Vt., and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at McBain, Mich., Wednesday, and interment was made in the cemetery there.

Carver High Sch

Due to the increase in social activities, club meetings and programs which are synonomous with spring and Easter, we have an abundance of news to detail to you this week.

Parent - Teacher meeting was held March 31. Special reports were made by community chairmen relative to pledges and drives for the cafeteria funds. Mrs. Mozella Price outlined a new program for meetings wherein interested groups will work for a portion of the fine arts and crafts, dramatics and singing, sewing, and general. This program will begin at the April meeting.

The Tenth Grade homeroom conducted assembly last Friday. Mr. Vastonni, a graduate of Father Flanagan's famed Boys Town, spoke. Mr. Vastonni, who is native of the British West Indies and son of an Oxford graduate, has been active since his induction into American society. He was special investigator for the NAACP during the famous Scottsboro case, and has toured 52 states and foreign countries.

The Carver Division of the Junior Science Congress is making plans for the annual convention which will be held at Hampton Institute April 24-26.The group plans to attend en masse. The club has three students presenting projects in the 'A' competition. They are: Anniebelle Robinson, homogenization of milk; Lillie Mae Lewis, rural sanitation, and Warren Jones, hydroponics or soilless gardening. These students have worked strenuously on their projects and here's wishing them all luck. Scholarship luck!

Seniors Warren Jones and McKinley Tanner took the regional examination for scholarships to Hampton Institute held at Dunbar High School in Lynchburg Saturday April 5.

Both boys feel that 4 1-2 hours of brain twisting questions and problems are enough for one day.

If you see a haughty looking person, who appears as if he'd just seen a long lost friend, don't be alarmed. It's probably a senior who just received his class picture. The pictures were exceptionally good.

The bulletin board which was maintained last week by the senior class was very attractive. Their theme was "Today's World." The Junior class has charge of it this week.

A group of baseball boys and Coach Walker witnessed a major league game between the Brooklyn Dodgers and Boston Braves Monday afternoon in Lynchburg.

Student Day is near. The students have turned in their letters of application to the faculty members. They are now to have interviews for the position for the day. Following the day, an assembly will be held to state the accomplishments of the day. If it is successful, it will be made an annual affair, and will be entered as an amendment in the S. C. A. Constitution.

The Seniors, with Mrs. H. P.

Wed Saturday Night

The wedding of Miss Helen Mae Poe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carlyle Poe, and Mr. James Albert Beaty, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Beaty of Birmingham, Alabama, took place Saturday evening at eight o'clock in Liberty Baptist Church. The pastor, Dr. V. W. Sears performed the double ring ceremony before an altar of banked greens and Easter lilies with branched candelabra.

Wedding music was provided by Miss Mary Ellen Ramsey, organist and Miss Ann Waller and Mr. J. C. Caldwell, vocalists.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white, brocade satin fashioned with a high, pointed neckline. The full, gathered skirt was attached to a fitted bodice and formed a circular train. The veil of bridal illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. The bride wore pearls given to her by the bridegroom and carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with lily of the valley.

Mrs. Carlton Phillips was matron of honor and Miss Barbara Anne Johnson was maid of honor and the other attendants were Mrs. S. A. Lawson, Mrs. Crawford Davidson, Miss Nell Newell and Miss Elizabeth Bell. They wore gowns of lavender net over matching taffeta fashioned with a tight bodice and full skirt, with a short overskirt. They carried cascade bouquets of Easter lilies.

Little Misses Charlotte Anne Lawson and Peggy Saunders were flower girls. They wore white organdy dresses and garlands of blue and white spring flowers in the hair.

Mr. James Albert Beaty, father of the groom was best man. Ushers were Robert Daniel Beaty, brother of the groom; John Ed Lee, Marshall Babcock, Webster Babcock, William E. Jamerson, and Edwin Cawthorne.

Mr. and Mrs. Poe entertained with a reception after the ceremony at their home. Mrs. Poe wore a rose crepe dinner gown, and Mrs. Beaty wore an ice blue gown. They both wore purple orchids at the shoulder.

For a southern trip, the bride chose a yellow cord suit with black accessories, adding the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox High School and attended Duke University. Mr. Beaty, who is now employed in Albertville, Ala., received his degree from Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, Ala.
